GCI members and their families and friends are invited to Ministry with Jesus: How to...—the 2012 GCI-USA Regional Conference. This conference will help you discover and develop practical ministry tools that you can take home and begin to implement right away in your local congregation.

Plenary sessions at the conference will feature inspiring worship followed by encouraging messages from Joseph Tkach (GCI president), Russell Duke (GCI vice president) and Dan Rogers (GCI superintendent of US ministers). You'll also hear from Gary and Cathy Deddo, who are coming on board with GCI this year.

In addition to plenary sessions with keynote speakers, we'll break into dialog groups. Come to share your questions, experiences, frustrations, resources, ideas, and victories concerning the specified topics. These topics have been selected based on pre-conference surveys of our US pastors. Each forum is facilitated by a CAD ministry developer. No lengthy lectures—rather a place to dialog on issues of mutual concern as we learn from each other, growing together in ministry with Jesus.
